

Finish off your 2010 dragon boat season with a bang!

16th Annual GWN Dragon Boat Challenge

The GWN Dragon Boat Challenge is a two-day regatta that brings together 5,000 recreational and elite dragon boat athletes and thousands of spectators. The event offers an exhilarating combination of racing and activities. Hang with friends in the beer garden, shop in the Marketplace, participate in a pre-race fitness workout in the Fitness Zone or test ride a canoe or kayak in the first ever in-water paddle expo. The GWN Dragon Boat Challenge has it all to ensure you a memorable experience both on and off the water.

Event highlights include: A 100m dash and 2000m for top teams, Industry Cup races, BCS Race and Flower Ceremony, Kids Zone and vendor/ food marketplace.

For all out-of-town teams, we have a special rate of $1,045. Join us on September 11-12, 2010 at Marilyn Bell Park in Toronto!

3rd Annual Orlando International Dragon Boat Festival at Walt Disney World® Resort

While most teams are packing up their paddles for the winter, there are those that travel to Walt Disney World Resort for one last paddling adventure. Located in Downtown Disney, The Orlando International Dragon Boat Festival is a one day regatta attracting recreational and competitive teams from all over North America. Receive exclusive deals on Disney Park Passes, special discounts on Disney Resorts and enjoy free shuttle service to and from the races!

Event highlights include: Inflatable PFDs will be permitted, a 100m dash and 2000m race for the top teams, BCS Race and Flower Ceremony.

Join us in Orlando on October 17, 2010. Register before July 1st and receive the Early Bird Out-Of-Town rate of $1,350.00US. Registration includes team tent, two team practices and passes to the after party.
